LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Another blizzard yesterday.

—The boys' branch of the Y. M. C. A. meets this evening.

—There are forty-three paupers at the county poor farm.

—Edgar county has a hundred and sixty-one district schools.

—Mlle Rhea, the great French actress, will be here next week.

—Prof. Morris is coming with his equine and canine paradox.

—The Lillian Russell company goes to Springfield this morning.

—Horse Radish Smith was locked up for drunkenness last evening.

—The Sons of Veterans will elect officers on next Monday evening.

—A disease known as black leg exists among cattle in Tazewell county.

—The Y. M. C. A. German class meets this evening at half past eight.

—Night school at Business College this week, Mon., Wed. and Fri. 8:30.

—The guards met at their armory last evening and drilled for an hour or so.

—The financial condition of the county seems to be a little better than that of the city.

—To keep track of the changes of the weather would require the issuing of an hourly edition.

—The new camp of Modern Woodmen will meet at the Palace hotel to-morrow evening to install officers.

—It is to-night that Gov. St. John will speak at Macon. A number of Decatur people expect to hear him.

—The Woman's Relief corps did not elect officers on Tuesday. They will do so at the meeting next week.

—The high school literary society will have an excellent programme at their meeting to-morrow evening. It will be visitors' night.

—The proposition among the young men, to form an association for the practice of gymnastic sports, seems to have fallen through with.

—A spectacular production of poor old Uncle Tom will be given at the opera house next week. A mere mention of the fact will insure a big audience.

—The new swell fronts built on West North street, to be used for a fashionable boarding house, are nearly completed, and will shortly be ready for occupancy.

—Officer Gus Hardy with his heavy coat buttoned up and his fur cap pulled well down to protect him from the wintry blasts, presents an admirable picture of Old Santa Claus.

—The deck hands of the Steamer Calhoun spent last night at the depot, on their way to St. Louis. The Calhoun is frozen in at Pekin, and will have to remain there till the ice breaks up.

—Owners of horses should remember that the poor dumb brutes are not devoid of feeling. One would imagine that if they are from the length of time some are allowed to stand on the street without blankets.

—The county clerk and his assistants are working like beavers on the tax collector's books, which must be ready within a few weeks. It is a long and tedious task, and requires days and weeks of writing and figuring.

—A special from Atlanta says: "The golden wedding of Col. L. D. Hamilton and wife was celebrated here to-night. They were among the pioneer settlers of this place. Guests were present from different parts of the state."

—The Illinois Central passenger train from the north was three hours late last evening. A heavy snow storm at Freeport caused the delay. The ground there was covered with eighteen inches of snow, and the storm was still raging.

—R. J. Bills, commission merchant, at the old refrigerator near the Wash freight office, pays the highest market price in cash for all kinds of poultry. He is always up with the times, and farmers should remember him. d10d1w3m —Get your seats to-morrow morning for the Gypsy band concert at the opera house on Monday evening, December 14th, at Curtis & Co. Seats, reserved, one dollar. Side seats, reserved, seventy-five cents. Gallery, fifty cents.

—An important sale of stock was made the other day, Mr. Hiram Johnson, who recently removed here from Moawega, purchasing one hundred shares in the Decatur Steam Tile and brick works. He paid ten thousand dollars for his interest.

—Mr. Robt. Snodgrass, who has been firing the smokeless engine, No. 1576 for Engineer John Ryder, has been promoted to the position of traveling fireman of the Wabash, and has been succeeded by Hugh Martin as fireman on 1575. Mr. Snodgrass' duties will be to travel over the road and see that the firemen keep their engines clean and do not waste their supply of coal and oil. It is a new office on the Wabash.

—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following parties: W. W. Martin and Miss Lillian Brownings, of South Wheatland; Henry Buskirk and Miss Ida Majors, of Warrensburg; James M. Scott and Miss Ida V. Betz, of Blue Mound.

—An individual named Murphy was arrested at the depot by Officer Hewes yesterday afternoon and locked up. He made an indecent exposure of his person in the waiting room. One of the police magistrates will inquire into the case to-day.

—A dispatch from Illiopolis says: "A married man, Matthew Poe, living at Lanesville, west of here, has deserted his wife and left for parts unknown, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Miss Jennie Poe, a young woman of heretofore good reputation. It is thought the pair are bound for Dakota."

—The Young Ladies' guild of the Baptist church gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Harwood last evening. Music and tableaux served to amuse those present and a splendid luncheon served to refresh them. It was a very pleasant little entertainment.

—The bible conference at the Baptist church did not fairly commence last evening. Messrs Jacobs and Excell, two prominent workers, did not arrive here when expected. The work of the conference will be thoroughly inaugurated this morning and will continue through to-day and to-morrow.

—Receiver Conklin pays his employees more promptly than many of the more pretentious roads. His management of the Midland road has been most commendable and if the road had not been mismanaged before he took hold of it, it would now, under his administration, be a paying property.

—A base ball enthusiast was yesterday heard to predict that next season Decatur would have the finest amateur club in the state. There are any number of admirers of the sport who would be delighted if this prediction were to come true, but it is about as uncertain as forecasting the weather.

—The Church of God Bethel has recently purchased a fine organ of the Miller manufacture. Many persons outside of the church aided in the purchase, and the pastor and congregation feel very thankful for the aid. The organ is a beauty both in finish and tone and the congregation is very proud of it.

—The Illinois Central will sell round-trip tickets to Macon and return to-day for thirty cents, to those attending the St. John speaking. The lectures will be afternoon and evening, and are free. The train leaves Decatur at 10:17 a. m. and 5:02 p. m., and returns at midnight. Arrangements have been made for the street car to meet the return train.

—Sale to commence to-day, at 103 Central block, Shafer & Dawkins. Everything at cost: Hats, caps, plush velvets, laces, hair goods and everything in our line. Bonnets and hats at 50 cents to $1.00. A comb given as a present with each sale. No old goods. All bought for this winter's trade. Feathers, real ostrich, 25 cents to $1.00. No moths thrown in. —[SHAFFER & DAWKINS. d10d1w

—The Woodroffe glass blowers will be here next week. Any one who has seen them, does not need to be told that they are first class. The company are by no means strangers in Decatur, having appeared here before and delighted innumerable hundreds. The manner in which glass is transformed into beautiful figures is remarkable, and is worth any one's time to go to see. They will exhibit at Rothfuss' hall.

—The Decatur hunters are now all home from Arkansas. The last party got in yesterday. It was composed of Captain Phil Barry, Jack Maguire, Garrett Schneck and Ira Meisenbeler. They camped at Gainesville, Arkansas, and were entertained by Captain Stubbs, who showed them the country and the habits of the deer and other game. They got twelve deer. Maguire killed three and a wolf and Barry killed one. A splendid time was enjoyed by the hunters, all of whom speak in glowing terms of Capt. Stubbs' hospitality.

—The warden of the southern Illinois penitentiary at Chester makes report to the governor for the month ending November 30th, of prisoners on hand as follows: On hand November 1, 687; received during month, 59; discharged, 18; pardoned, 3; escaped, 2; on hand December 1, 723; of this number 708 being males, and 15 females. The warden of the penitentiary at Joliet reports as follows: On hand November 1, 1,535; received from courts, 73; discharged, 63; died, 2; escaped, 1; on writ of habeas corpus, 1; total, 1,591, of which 24 are females.

—A case of utter destitution and abandonment has been brought to the notice of Overseer of the Poor Newell, from East William street. A woman gave birth to a still born child of doubtful parentage, while alone in a fireless and poorly furnished room. No one knew of her condition until she knocked at the head of her bed and by her cries attracted the attention of parties living in the house with her. When notice was brought to Mr. Newell's notice he provided the woman with necessary fuel and provisions and left her comfortable and in an improved condition.

—A gentleman who came to the city yesterday from Mattoon, reports the people considerably stirred up over a sensational and romantic love affair. A young man named Hilton loved each other with a "two-souls-but-but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one," intensity, and had the consent of their parents to become man and wife. Both the young people were of good family and well provided for, and their friends looked upon their union as a promising match, but suddenly the young man's love grew cold, and he left his affianced with a broken heart. According to the report she became violently insane, and on Tuesday was taken to the southern Illinois hospital for the insane. Her friends and relatives were greatly distressed over the sad termination of what promised to be the beginning of all her future happiness.

—The old-fashioned town of Pekin has come out of a Rip Van Winkle sleep of about twenty-five years duration, and is putting on great airs with electric light and a new twenty-thousand dollar wagon bridge. Once the town gave promise of being what Peoria is to-day, a thriving little city, but a lot of old fogies held it back, and on the peaceful banks of the odoriferous Illinois it dropped into a sleep and dreamed of coming prosperity. The awakening took place in the spring, when with the building of the bridge and the putting in of the electric light the town displayed more activity than has been shown for years. Being reclaimed to active life the Pekinites determined to commemorate the event with a grand celebration. The great procession was to come up the street, the mayor and the aldermen lionized, and the whole affair turned into a countrified rejoicing, but the weather dispelled all preparations and the event was declared off, much to the regret of all, and especially, we suppose to the mayor and the council who were to be commemorated as having reclaimed the town.

—The county supervisors met again yesterday, all the members present and President Hill in the chair. A number of matters of public interest received attention. Among other things demanding attention, was a petition from sixty-five residents on West Main street, relating to the Citizens' street railway. They are after the management for not running cars to the western limit of the road, in conformity with the rights granted by the board. The citizens either want the cars run to the limit of the track or else have the street vacated. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee.

—Steward Magee, of the poor farm, submitted the following report of the condition of affairs at the poor farm: Number of inmates admitted since last report, eighteen; born, one; total, nineteen; discharged, eleven; died, one; total, twelve; remaining at farm, December 8, forty-three. The report was received and placed on file.

—The finance committee, to whom was referred the report of County Treasurer Wood, reported that they had examined and found the same correct, and destroyed the vouchers by burning. The balance in the treasury on September first, together with the earnings of the treasurer over his salary, amounted to $24,724.71. The amount since paid out was $10,758.12 leaving a balance in the treasury of $13,966.59. The report of the committee was adopted.

—The committee on public buildings reported having sold old matting in the court house for three dollars and turned the same over to the county treasurer. The committee also recommended that J. M. Cloney be taxed thirty dollars for tapping the county sewer running from the county jail to East Main street, and that if he did not pay the same within thirty days, that the said connection be detached. The county clerk was instructed to collect the money. The report was adopted.

—The board of supervisors on fees and salaries reported having examined the report of County Superintendent Trainer and found the same correct. The balance of funds on hand is $187.15. The report was approved.

—The salary of the court house janitor has been fixed by the board at five hundred dollars per annum, and that of the county physician has been made the same. The steward at the poor farm will receive one thousand a year.

—The board will meet again this morning and it is expected the business will be finished up to-day.

—The Comic Opera. Miss Lillian Russell, the pretty comic opera vocalist, played "Billie Taylor" at the opera house last evening, to a small audience. The company is possessed of much merit and deserved better at the hands of the Decatur theatre goers. Miss Russell appeared in her original character of "Phoebe Parleigh," the pet of the village, and her vocal efforts were received with liberal applause. Fred Solomon also played in his original character of "Ben Barnacle" and was immense. He has the part down "pat" and no mistake. His song "All on Account of Eliza" was encored three or four times, and even then the audience did not seem satisfied. All the leading characters were ably presented, and at the low prices of admission, the opera house should have been filled. Mr. Edward Solomon, the musical director, is the composer of the opera and the husband of Miss Russell.

—Until January 1st I will trim all hats purchased at my store free of charge. Bargains in all classes of goods. Fine plumes, worth from $2.50 to $6.50 apiece, at the reduced price of $1.50 for your choice. These goods cannot be duplicated. Ostrich tips in all colors, 10 cents a tip. Your choice of fancy feathers at 25 cents apiece. Silk plushes $1.50 per yard. A good quality of silk velvet at 75 cents a yard. Hat and bonnet frames 10 cents a piece.
